Join Us in the Spotlight!

Stage School Australia advances young people's personal skills through training in the performing arts.

With a friendly and supportive environment and a dedicated team of professionals, we develop natural abilities and foster a lifelong love of learning and creativity. Our extensively developed curriculum combines a mix of on-stage and off-stage rehearsals and performances. We aim to foster self-confidence and public speaking skills in a group environment, as well as boost abilities through live performances.

We truly believe that the skills developed in the performing arts provide a solid platform for young people to take on the world. While our programs offer continued learning outside of school, the core of our philosophy is a focus on ensuring our students enjoy their experience and have fun.

Research proves that active participation in the arts positively impacts on young people in the following areas:

- Social and personal development.
- Attitudes to learning.
- Literacy.
- Numeracy.
- Competencies such as writing, communicating, problem solving, planning, organising, perseverance and appreciation of teamwork.
- Appreciation of the arts and culture in general.

FULL SENSORY EXPERIENCE!

"Right from the very first rehearsal, our son was smitten with it. He comes home buoyed by the confidence given him by the wonderful teachers he's come into contact with and from the friendships he's developing. We appreciate how well run Stage School Australia is, as well as how thorough you are in taking care of all the details involved in putting together such massive performance seasons - you've achieved the full sensory experience!"

How to join

Entry into Beginners OnStage (BOS), Young Australian Broadway Chorus (YABC) and Australian Youth Theatre (AYT) is by audition.

Our auditions are fun, relaxed, free of charge and are designed to give prospective students and parents an insight into our classes.

Auditions are conducted in groups of approximately 15-20 participants. Parents are invited to the session as a supportive audience, giving them an insight into our courses.

The group, which at times will be split into smaller groups and pairs, is led through various performing activities specific to the stream of training (YABC, AYT or Beginners OnStage). These activities may include improvisation, voice and movement. Assessments are based on participation in these exercises.

After the audition, successful applicants will be offered a place at their preferred venue, pending availability in each class. We place each student in a class that matches their age and level of ability. We ask prospective students to bear in mind three key points:

1. Enjoy yourself!

2. Auditions are simple

So if you do have previous performing arts experience, make sure you participate in all activities to the best of your abilities to show the teaching Director what you can do.

3. Don't worry

Don't worry if you have never done anything like this before. Lots of young people audition for us without any previous performing experience.

Auditions are held in February, June-July and November-December.

Young Australian Broadway Chorus

The Young Australian Broadway Chorus (YABC) is a vibrant musical theatre course for young people, providing an exciting mix of tuition and on stage performance.

We can help you unlock the confidence to share your natural performing skills with the world. Through weekly rehearsals with professional music directors, choreographers and directors, we encourage students to extend themselves, gain new skills and progress up through the YABC levels.

- Rehearse each week with a professional musical director, choreographer and drama director.
- Perform in fully staged theatrical productions twice a year.
- Learn exciting and varied musical theatre repertoire.
- Discover the fun of being part of a team of performers.

The YABC teaching methodology places an emphasis on creative drama as a means to developing performing skills. We believe it is important to turn our students into talented musical theatre performers in song, dance and drama. Our repertoire is chosen according to the age and level of each group, placing a focus on the skills students are developing.

YABC students are renowned for their well-rounded performance skills. Our teaching method has been proven time and time again with unforgettable performances each semester, reinforced by positive feedback from students and parents alike.

YABC Alumni grace the stages of musical theatre productions around the world.

Class Levels

YABC classes are dynamic and fun. The class levels outlined in the grid below have been designed to allow students to work with others their own age with similar skills, experience and interests.

The musical theatre repertoire is age appropriate in terms of both content and degree of difficulty to present the songs and dances. As professional musical theatre performers will attest, it is often beneficial for students to remain in a group level for several years to consolidate their skills. Each semester the repertoire changes to ensure classes remain challenging and engaging.

We don't place any pressure on young people to feel they have to work up through the class levels. However, for those students who have demonstrated a high skill level and strong commitment, a place in a Performing Level group may be offered. Entry to the Performing Level Groups is by invitation only based on the directors' recommendations.

Fees include weekly rehearsals, workshops, materials and costumes for performances.

*Age brackets are indicative only and are subject to change without notice.

CONGRATULATIONS!

"Congratulations to all the wonderful people who work behind the scenes to make the performances all appear effortless... and to the teachers who make it enjoyable for the kids to want to keep coming back each week. I am also impressed by the communication I receive about what is going on and how things work, it makes choosing to send my daughter to YABC an easy decision."

Experience the compelling world of Drama

Ages 8 - 18

Founded in 1984, the Australian Youth Theatre (AYT) is one of the most established performance-based drama programs in Brisbane.

With a proven track record of success and an exciting and stimulating curriculum, the AYT allows every young performer to shine.

ENRICHING

"It's well organised and very professional... It creates memorable, life enriching experiences for the children."

Australian Youth Theatre

A lot of young people attend drama classes to develop social skills, self-confidence and public speaking. Others just want to act! At the Australian Youth Theatre (AYT) we combine the best of both worlds.

Our unique program combines elements of two key areas:

- 'Creative drama' uses a variety of activities to develop spontaneity, imagination, focus, confidence, verbal skills & physicality.
- 'Stagecraft drama' places an emphasis on vocal projection and clarity, acting techniques, text as the basis for characterisation, and physical staging.

Designed to harness your natural acting abilities, this integrated approach helps students develop these core skills.

The Australian Youth Theatre program:

- Rehearse each week with a professional drama director.
- Develop language and public speaking skills.
- Perform in fully staged theatrical productions each semester.
- Extend your range as an actor.

Students are actively encouraged to contribute ideas to the group, as well as be receptive to those contributed by others. Within this framework, the rehearsal director will work with students using a structured curriculum to develop performing skills and rehearse their performing pieces.

AYT Alumni appear in theatre, film and TV productions around the world.

Class Levels

The motivation of students joining AYT classes ranges from simply seeking a fun activity to meet new friends, to building public speaking skills, through to an ambition to be on stage. The class levels outlined in the grid below have been designed to allow students to work with others their own age with similar skills, experience and interests.

The theatrical repertoire is age appropriate in terms of content, length and degree of difficulty to develop and present their character in the plays. As all professional actors know, it is beneficial for students to remain in a group level for several years to consolidate their skills.

Each semester the repertoire changes to ensure classes remain challenging and engaging.

In Brisbane, we presently offer our AYT Training Level. We will expand our levels in the future to cater to our students' expanding skill level. We don't place any pressure on young people to feel they have to work up through the class levels. However, for those students who have demonstrated a high skill level and strong commitment, a place in a Performing Level group may be offered. Entry to the Performing Level Groups is by invitation only based on the directors' recommendations.

Fees include weekly rehearsals, workshops, materials and costumes for performances.

Frequently Asked Questions

About Beginners OnStage, Australian Youth Theatre and the Young Australian Broadway Chorus.

At what age can a student start?

Beginners OnStage (BOS) caters for children aged 5-7 years of age. The Australian Youth Theatre (AYT) and the Young Australian Broadway Chorus (YABC) accepts students between 8 and 18 years of age.

Do students require previous experience?

Previous experience is not required to join our programs. Many of our students join Stage School classes exclusively to increase their self-confidence.

Do you cater for students with previous experience?

Yes, we cater for students with all levels of experience in the performing arts. During the initial audition, we encourage students who have had previous experience to participate to the best of their ability, allowing us to place them in the most suitable group.

What are the age ranges and how many students are in each class?

Our programs cater for 5-18 year olds and individual class age ranges vary depending on the class type and performing level. We aim to keep the age span between youngest and oldest to a minimum. On average, the YABC class size is between 18-20 students, but can increase at an advanced level.

How often do your students perform?

Students perform twice each year in a fully staged production at the end of each semester. Additionally, students in performing level groups are given further opportunities where available.

How long do the classes go for?

Class times vary depending on the student's program and level, starting at 1.5 hours for Beginners OnStage, and up to 3+ hours for the highest level classes.

How much are fees?

Tuition fees vary depending on the program your child is enrolled in. Fees include weekly rehearsals, workshops, materials and costumes for performances. For more information on fees, please speak to our friendly Head Office team.

Are there any additional costs?

Uniform: All students require a t-shirt to wear to rehearsals and performances - $32.50. YABC and Beginners OnStage require black dance pants and jazz dance shoes (soft shoe style, not the jazz sneaker) which can be purchased at dance stores. As students progress up the levels, they will require additional items (e.g. tap shoes) which will be outlined in your Offer.

Performances: tickets range between $23-$40 depending on the stream of training (subject to change).

Can I spread payments out, or do I have to pay the full fee up front?

We have two payment options: you can pay fees on a deferred monthly plan, or everything up front. There is a small, one-off administration fee if you pay monthly.

If your child needs to withdraw for any reason throughout the year, a percentage of fees may be refunded provided enough notice is given. All important dates and enrolment payment terms will be fully outlined in the Offer sent out following your audition.

How do students move up the levels?

Offers to move up the levels are based on Rehearsal Director recommendations at the end of each semester. Students will always be placed in an appropriate class for their age and level of ability. It is not unusual, and is beneficial, for students to remain in a group level for several years to consolidate their skills. As the saying goes, "practice makes perfect!"
